

Invenias Extends Innovation Lead with New Products and Enhanced Functionality

Latest release of Platform expands to further enhance client and candidate and user experience

11th January, 2017 London

Invenias, the leading cloud-based platform for executive and strategic hiring, has today announced the latest release of its flagship platform, Invenias 9, which incorporates over 40 new features based on customer suggestions and more than 300 general enhancements.

Invenias 9 includes the new products Invenias Analytics Dashboards, Invenias Proximity and Invenias Help plus additional enhancements to Feedback and Scoring, Client and Team Management, Client Publishing and Forecasting. This latest version will enable users to be more productive, collaborate better with their clients and candidates and gain greater insight into their business than ever before.

With this release Invenias are also pleased to announce a unique new initiative, Invenias Labs. This is a managed Beta programme for early adopter customers, delivering preview releases of 'Lab Concepts' and allowing customers to have direct input into the future direction of the Invenias platform.

David Grundy, CEO, Invenias said: "At Invenias we have an ethos of continuous innovation in partnership with our customers. The world in which search executives operate is constantly evolving and therefore so must our platform. We strive to ensure that our clients have the data they need to be able to complete assignments quickly and profitably. That means we're constantly challenging ourselves to think differently and come to market with innovative products that allow our customers to remain competitive and successful."

Commenting on the new release, Michael Høstved, Partner at Research Nordic ApS said: "Invenias has dramatically changed the way that we interact with our clients and candidates. The latest version of the Invenias platform enables us to drive efficiencies, communicate more effectively internally and externally, and provide a better overall client, candidate and user experience."

Invenias 9 is available globally now. Accompanying the new release Invenias are running a series of free webinars, focusing on 'Transforming the Productivity of your Team', 'Unlocking your High Value Data' and 'Digital Collaboration with your Clients and Candidates'.
